

I am concerned about cross ownership in radio, television and newspapers. Please do not allow this to occur. Our country was built on many owners of media. Democracy cannot survive without many voices.